Public comment: none

Friends of the Library: Karen Hill reported that the membership request mailings were ready to be mailed and that there has been a good response from the used book sale.

Old Business: YES committee was held July 15 and the next one will be August 12 at 3:30.

New Business: The Tuscarora Township Clerk requested exclusive use of the Library for Election monitors on Tuesday, August 4, 2020, as they require a sequestered area. Anglewicz motioned to have the library remain open on Election Day but allow the election monitors to use the downstairs area for sequester.

Harrington seconded.

Directors Report: 4 weeks after being reopened, circulation is down 41%. The library will be following the REALM project suggestions to guide safety protocols for the library. The Summer Reading Program has 63 participants.

MeL will begin August 10.
